In the Interest of Greater Public Goods

The phrase "in the interest of greater public goods" signifies taking decisive action to advance the welfare of society as a whole. It asserts the supremacy of collective needs over personal ambition or private profit.

Through resolute decision-making and unyielding action, society is radically transformed – securing undeniable common advantage, commanding maximum collective benefit, instituting unbreakable social equity, relentlessly driving shared prosperity, guaranteeing collective well-being, and forging the unshakable stability of the entire community.
